

Cheltenham Center for the Arts Resident Artist Program 2023-2024

The Cheltenham Center for the Arts Resident Artist Program seeks to enhance the creative educational experience at the Center by providing an exciting, supportive environment for artists starting or making a change in their careers. Our residents are self-supporting artists who wish to work and teach at the Center for one year.

Residents will: have a small, private studio space with 24-hour access, be the studio coordinator for their areas, and have the opportunity to teach classes at the Center. At the end of the year residents will have an exhibition at the Cheltenham Center for the Arts showcasing the body of work completed during their residency.

Qualifications:

The program welcomes self-motivated, focused individuals working in traditional and nontraditional mediums. The primary basis for selection is the strength and quality of the applicants' work; however residents must also have a clear objective for the time of their residency and be able to work as part of a close-knit community.

Responsibilities:

Each one of the Resident Artists will have day-to-day studio responsibilities working with our faculty and staff. Each session Residents may teach one or more classes at the Center with approval from the Director. The Resident will be expected to assist during Center sponsored openings and special events, as needed.
